Attorneys for Children with Special Needs

About Us

The Law Offices of Keith E. Davis is staffed by experienced Special Education attorneys and advocates who have successfully represented parents in resolving numerous cases on behalf of children and young adults with special education needs.

We are committed to the welfare of all children and work diligently with parents, therapists, and doctors to ensure that the school districts strictly comply with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act ("IDEA").

We make Special Education work for you!

Our Mission

"To give children the opportunity to obtain the services they need and enable them to receive and ultimately achieve their academic goals."

We Offer:

- Free Consultations.
- Due Process Hearings.
- Individual Education Plans (IEP).
- Investigation and Enforcement.

Our representatives are also available for presentations to support groups and resource fairs.
